

Happy New Year Members and Friends!

It is with great excitement we announce our 2015 Chairwoman of the Board and Bakersfield Realtor Blodgie Rodriguez, has been appointed by Governor Jerry Brown to the 15th District Agricultural Association, Kern County Fair Board of Directors. "I'm excited and honored to be a part of the fair board," stated Rodriguez. Blodgie's love for the fair, originated when she was a part of the Casa Loma 4-H.

Rodriguez has been a local realtor since 2004. This year, she is beginning her second term as chairwoman of the Kern County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. Blodgie is a member of the Latina Leaders of Kern County Board of Directors and has worked at the Kern County Youth Mariachi Foundation and The Californian before getting into real estate.

We look forward to her leadership, Congratulations Blodgie!
