

Pictured Above: Kern County leaders from government representatives, philanthropists, industry, and education came together at the Fireside Room on Thursday morning to hear about what Bakersfield College and the community is doing to support our Latino community. □