

The Kern County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce (KCHCC) is excited to announce that its CEO and President Jay Tamsi has been named Central Region Director for the California

Hispanic Chambers of Commerce (CHCC).

Tamsi (pictured above) will serve as Central Region Director for statewide CHCC, serving vital needs of the Central Valley and Kern County.

The two-year position to serve on the CHCC Board of Directors was announced recently at the 40th Annual California Hispanic Chambers of Commerce Convention, which was held in Los Angeles, August 15 - 18, and attracted key Latino leaders from throughout the state. Tamsi was elected by his peers, members of other Hispanic chambers of commerce and those active with CHCC. Congratulations Jay!
